

Try Something New

This Christmas have fun, make a difference, learn something, and complete service hours.

How:

Be the community leader at your school by recruiting fellow classmates to help you take The Kettle Challenge. Work together to find a strategic location to host a red kettle. Earn your service learning hours with the potential to win prizes and make a difference in your community.

When:

Any time during The Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign:
Friday, November 18, 2011 - Saturday, December 24, 2011

Where:

Choose among hundreds of locations in your community

Who to contact:

See your Service Learning Counselor for details on how to participate.

Benefits:

- Learn about what The Salvation Army does and how your support will help those in need in your community.
- Compete with several other high schools in the Chicagoland area for bragging rights and school pride.
- All participants win a free prize and certificate for your school's display case.
- Get the chance to win a pizza party, traveling trophy and other bonus prizes for the top earning schools.
